Solano Food Resources User Guide

Introduction

- The purpose of this website is to provide food bank locations and additional no-cost food programs to users in Solano County.
- This guide is best for the Solano County area community to use. However, everyone is free to use this.

Getting Started

With our simple user-friendly interface offering both English and Spanish translations, no information inputs are necessary. Users can scroll below our home page to access a Google map view of local food banks and on the right, access resources for food assistance.

Using the Main Features

- The Map
  - The map features 70+ local food banks as well as their opening hours.
  - Refer to the color key for the type of establishment, click on the pins near you for more information.
- Resource Links
  - Our website features links to programs and resources available to assist you in receiving food.
  - Refer to the right side of the screen for the descriptions and underlined links.

Troubleshooting and FAQs

- If the links become dead, manually search for the organization described and contact the email below so we can fix it.
- Frequently asked questions:
  - Why aren't there food banks in my area? Currently, our website is focused on the Solano County area and extending. We apologize for your disappointment, and look to expanding the map in the future.
  - I have a food bank, why isn't it on the map? We were as diligent as possible while creating the map, however we are only human. Please contact us at the email below and if your organization is in the area we would love to add it to the map.
